ISLAMIC FINANCE PROGRAMMES
YOU WANT TO STUDY ONE OF THE BEST ISLAMIC FINANCE PROGRAMMES IN THE WORLD. WHAT’S YOUR NEXT MOVE?

We offer well-established taught postgraduate programmes in Islamic Finance, have one of the largest global PhD cohorts in this discipline, and are internationally renowned for our research.
1. WHY DURHAM?

Durham University is a World Top 20 University for the quality of its graduates

QS World University Rankings 2012

Durham has been a centre for research and education in Islamic finance, Islamic economics and Islamic management for over 25 years and enjoys a well-established international reputation in these areas.

- A global business school from every perspective.
- A top-four UK university (Sunday Times 2013).
- One of the longest-established business schools in the UK.
- We’re based in the United Kingdom in the beautiful, compact and safe city of Durham, with a UNESCO World Heritage Site at the city’s heart, and at the contemporary, forward-looking Queen’s Campus at Stockton-on-Tees.
- We work with some of the world’s most admired businesses to solve the challenges they face now and in the future.
- Our graduates are the well-rounded international business leaders of the future, who can think independently.
- The School’s influential research spans all major business-related disciplines – 95% of research outputs are judged to be of international standard (Research Assessment Exercise 2008).

Durham University is a leading academic institution in Islamic finance not only in the United Kingdom but in the whole of the West. Learning Islamic finance has broadened my knowledge, experience and horizon, and working alongside students of various nationalities throughout the world, has complemented my learning experience with good social networking and discussion.

Muhammad Syahmi Mohd Karim
Durham PhD Graduate, Risk Analyst, Bank Negara Malaysia

One of an elite group of schools worldwide to carry all three international quality kitemarks.

- AACSB
- Association of MBAs
- EQUIS
Islamic banking and finance has become an important alternative banking and financing method all over the world. Islamic financial institutions are now operating in more than 75 countries involving the financing of various popular world brands with assets of around US$2 trillion.

Durham programmes in Islamic Finance provide postgraduate education and training in relevant specialised areas of Islamic finance and banking, Islamic economics and Islamic management, and in their relevant conventional counterparts. They are informed by research shaped by the world-class reputation of Durham in the field.

We offer the following programmes:

- MSc Islamic Finance
- MSc Islamic Finance and Management
- PhD by Research
- Durham Islamic Finance Summer School.

We organise and sponsor international conferences on Islamic economics and finance in collaboration with other leading global academic institutions such as Islamic Research and Training Institute (IRTI) of the Islamic Development Bank, International Shari'ah Research Academy (ISRA), Malaysia; and Kyoto University, Japan.

The Islamic Finance programme is very innovative and versatile for today’s rapidly changing world. The range of modules allows you to deepen your knowledge of the financial disciplines, which makes it intellectually stimulating, and hence attractive.

It is for those who are willing to discover new horizons and widen their perspective in the field of finance. It not only allowed me to interact with completely different cultures, but also gave me the opportunity to start thinking in a different way with the ambitious aim to achieve a multifaceted understanding of contemporary finance.

Being enrolled on the MSc Islamic Finance at Durham is something to be proud of.

Guglielmo Savarese
MSc Islamic Finance Graduate

Our Islamic Finance postgraduate taught programmes are designed to provide rigorous training at the frontier of research, as well as the advanced analytical and technical skills that are highly sought after by global employers.

Taught by a world-class faculty, they are among the strongest in the UK. Intensive one-year, full-time programmes they aim to:

- develop an advanced understanding of the complexity of Islamic finance, economics and management including its moral, legal and regulatory framework and Shari‘ah compliance process
- expand your understanding of issues in Islamic finance and conventional finance, and also your understanding of Islamic and conventional management including their practical aspects
- extend your conceptual abilities and analytical skills to evaluate the rigour and validity of published research and assess its relevance to new situations in the field of Islamic finance and management.

MSc Islamic Finance, a specialised taught programme, involves quantitative methods in the analysis of Islamic and conventional finance by making reference to their technical particularities.

The first of its kind at a global level, MSc Islamic Finance and Management is a cross-disciplinary specialised programme aiming to provide management-related knowledge and skills to students who at the same time specialise in Islamic Finance. Compared to the MSc Islamic Finance, this programme requires a lesser amount of quantitative material, knowledge and skills.

‘My dissertation topic was Islamic Finance in Azerbaijan: Past, Present and Future – Legal and Regulatory Challenges Ahead. I was so inspired by my lecturers at Durham that I decided to expand my dissertation and publish it as an Azerbaijani Islamic Finance book in Azeri and English languages. If someone had told me this a year ago, I wouldn’t have believed them.

I would say with all sincerity that the time I spent in Durham was the best time of my life. Durham not only awarded me with great academic knowledge and a degree, but also with very sincere friends.’

4. MODULE OVERVIEW

You study eight taught modules – seven core modules and one elective module – and complete a dissertation. The table opposite summarises which modules are core or elective (ie optional) for each degree route.

For module descriptions, visit www.durham.ac.uk/business/degrees/msc_programmes

To remain at the forefront of the latest thinking, we constantly develop our curriculum and learning methods by drawing on innovative research and practice. Therefore not all optional modules run every year.

DISSERATION

The programme culminates in a 12,000 word dissertation which provides an opportunity for you to investigate in greater detail a subject that you have already studied during the year. The work will enable you to exercise critical judgement and illustrate how economic analysis has relevance to financial decision taking.

You will be expected to deal with your chosen topic in a competent and scholarly manner, and to display critical discrimination and a sense of proportion in evaluating evidence and the opinions of others. The dissertation is a stimulating and challenging part of the programme and a major piece of independent work.

GRADUATION

As well as the academic challenges of postgraduate study, you’ll have access to a wide range of new experiences to complement your classroom learning. We offer a range of extra-curricular activities with a strong practical emphasis. This will help you apply the knowledge and technical skills you gain from the programme.

DURHAM SPEAKER SERIES

Our extensive schedule of guest speaker events provides thought leadership and the opportunity to network with leading thinkers, senior business leaders, staff, students and alumni. Additionally, as part of your programme, you’ll enjoy regular presentations by academics and practitioners, including representatives of major European and US banks, clearing houses, hedge fund companies, and stock and futures exchanges.

In the past, we’ve had presentations from organisations as diverse as University of Chicago, Bank of England, Budapest Stock Exchange and the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

Our sporting facilities are so impressive that around 85% of our students take part in sport – one of the highest rates across UK universities.
THE LEADING EDGE PROGRAMME

In addition to the career development services provided by the University, the Business School has its own dedicated careers and skills development team, Leading Edge, which provides a tailored programme to enhance the employability of its postgraduate students and alumni.

The Leading Edge Programme of workshops and speaker sessions is designed to develop your essential interpersonal skills and help you achieve the competitive advantage to get the job you want and to excel in your career. We integrate and complement the core academic programme and the wide range of services provided by the Careers Employability and Enterprise Centre by working in partnership with leading experts.

Workshops and events are scheduled throughout the year and include opportunities for reflective and experiential learning. These cover such topics as:

- Confidence building and developing personal resilience
- Delivering impactful presentations
- Group working / high performing teams
- Creative problem-solving and decision making
- Business etiquette - working together effectively across cultures
- Workplace survival skills - making an impact
- Career fast tracking - building reputation.

The highly experienced facilitators also offer free lifetime mentoring to any individuals who participate in their workshops.

ACCOMMODATION

We offer good quality, reasonably priced accommodation at Durham University. Alternatively, if you prefer, we can help you find local private accommodation to suit your needs. We’ll provide you with more specific details on application. In the meantime, visit www.durham.ac.uk/study/accommodation

COLLEGES AND SOCIETIES

All full-time postgraduates become a member of one of our colleges or societies. As well as offering a wide range of social and cultural activities, the Colleges provide support and a sense of belonging during your time in Durham. For more information visit www.durham.ac.uk/colleges

GLOBAL ALUMNI NETWORK

When you enrol, you become a member of our alumni association. The network serves around 12,000 Durham graduates, and reaches over 100 countries worldwide. It facilitates friendship and business connections, and sits at the heart of the ‘Durham Experience’.

All our graduates and students are invited to join the alumni online community and enjoy a range of benefits:

- Continually sharpen your skills through our webinar series and careers workshops as part of our ongoing Leading Edge careers support

- Access our online career resources, video library and eBooks – at any time to suit you!

- Build your social and professional network through our global events programme. Events include continuous professional development, social events and networking opportunities through the Durham Speaker Series and Corporate Forum

- Enhance your knowledge through our journals and business database.

Contact our dedicated alumni team for more information, email business.alumni@durham.ac.uk or visit www.durham.ac.uk/business/alumni

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

If your first language is not English, you will need evidence of competence in written and spoken English (IELTS overall score of 6.5 with no element under 6.0 or TOEFL 110). If your scores fall slightly short, or if you would like to advance your English skills, you may be able to attend a pre-sessional English language course at Durham University English Language Centre. To learn more visit www.durham.ac.uk/englishlanguage.centre

OPEN EVENTS

We encourage you to attend one of our Masters Open Events held throughout the year. These are a great opportunity to see the School, meet our staff, current students and alumni, and find out more about the course and studying in Durham. Alternatively, if you are unable to get to the School, you may wish to visit us at one of the international recruitment fairs we attend throughout the year, or an online information session.

For more information on locations and dates, visit www.durham.ac.uk/business/news/recruitment

MAKING YOUR APPLICATION

We strongly advise you to apply as soon as possible, particularly if you need university accommodation. Learn more about our application details and apply online at www.durham.ac.uk/business/degrees/msc_programmes/applying

Durham is a truly international university with students and staff representing 150 countries.
Studying at PhD level is a challenging and stimulating experience. You will be part of a vibrant, lively and welcoming research-led community at Durham whilst developing your analytical, conceptual and critical thinking skills to the highest level.

Durham University Business School is the ideal place to gain your qualification in Islamic Finance. Our expertise, innovative approach and academic rigour ensure relevance for today’s and tomorrow’s business world. Durham Doctoral Training Centre for Islamic Economics and Finance provides a dynamic approach to developing cutting edge research in Islamic finance, banking, economics and management, as evidenced by the large numbers of PhD studies conducted at the Centre. We offer supervision of PhD research in specialised areas of these disciplines.

PhD research students in Islamic Finance are encouraged to attend Islamic Finance related modules on the programme, as well as attend research methodology and skills related courses.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

To study a PhD by Research programme at Durham University Business School, you need to meet the following entry requirements:

- IELTS 7.0 (no element below 6.5) and TOEFL 100 (no element under 25)

  Please note that these can be no more than two years old at the month the programme starts, eg for a programme commencing in January 2014 the IELTS or TOEFL test must have been taken in or after October 2012. This is a requirement of the UK Border Agency for your Tier 4 study visa.

- For UK students: a Masters degree, normally with a mark of at least 65% in your Masters dissertation.

  For non-UK students: a degree that is equivalent to a UK Masters. You also need to have completed and passed (at a level equivalent to at least 65%) a dissertation module.

- Those without a Masters degree but with over five years’ professional experience may be accepted onto the programme depending on each particular case. In such cases, the candidate will be expected to attend Islamic Finance and research methodology related modules.

HOW TO APPLY

We have two intakes a year. Please check the website for intake dates and application deadlines: www.durham.ac.uk/business/degrees/research

Successful application is based on your ability to meet the entry requirements, your research proposal and the School’s capacity to provide relevant supervision for your research.

It is important that your general research interests match those of at least one member of our academic staff. For information on the range of expertise and experience of our academic faculty and details of their research interests, please visit www.durham.ac.uk/dcief/staff
